

Northview Band Plays for Champions Breakfast!

The Northview Middle School band, under the direction of David Wortman, performed during the early morning meeting of the Champions of Education held on December 14th at the Crown Plaza. Approximately 200 guests attended the event—arriving to the welcoming sounds of jazz and holiday tunes provided by the talented musicians.

